

THE HIDDEN FREQUENCIES

WHAT ARE THE HIDDEN FREQUENCIES?

“There are places in the dimension of sound where the walls between universes are thin. In these fragile pockets of static, lies the ability to hear the alternate realities of millions of maybe-people in countless could-be worlds; where the status quo is different from our own. With a keen ear and an open mind we may tune in to these sound waves of the strange, the bizarre and the otherworldly. They are: The Hidden Frequencies.”

THE FORMAT

The Hidden Frequencies is a radio-play anthology show created to be a ‘spiritual successor’ to The Twilight Zone, and other anthology horror and science fictions programs of similar ilk.

Conceived from the lack of short-form, non-narrative anthologies available to podcast listeners, The Hidden Frequencies will be one of the few properties that sits comfortably in both the horror and audio-drama genres; offering bite-sized fantasy tales, professionally produced with top-notch voice talent, that change every episode.

AT A GLANCE:

- Length: 30 minutes including intro/outro (22-24 min. scripts)
- Stories/episode: 1
- Episodes/week: 1
- Weeks/Season: 12 (Season 1)
- Format: Radio play (Dialogue/SFX)
- Source material: Original scripts from Contributors

In this format, The Hidden Frequencies not only frightens and surprises its audience, but like The Twilight Zone of old, makes them think about their current world and culture – the happy marriage between storytelling and social commentary.
